The objectives of EU External Action

‘In its relations with the wider world, the Union shall uphold and promote its values and interests and contribute to the protection of its citizens. It shall contribute to peace, security, the sustainable development of the Earth, solidarity and mutual respect among peoples, free and fair trade, eradication of poverty and the protection of human rights, in particular the rights of the child, as well as to the strict observance and the development of international law, including respect for the principles of the United Nations Charter.’
(TEU Art. 3(5))

The message?

The 2003 European Security Strategy

A SECURE EUROPE IN A BETTER WORLD

EUROPEAN SECURITY STRATEGY

Brussels, 12 December 2003

Introduction

Europe has never been so prosperous, so secure nor so free. The violence of the first half of the 20th Century has given way to a period of peace and stability unprecedented in European history.

The EU Global Strategy (June 2016)

Foreword by Federica Mogherini

High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy
Vice-President of the European Commission

The purpose, even existence, of our Union is being questioned. Yet, our citizens and the world need a strong European Union like never before. Our wider region has become more unstable and more insecure.

Integrated approach

Defence Union

- removing our rose-tinted glasses
- reducing our reliance on others
- referee becoming player
- not leaving the Global South to China
- increasing our visibility and impact
- getting the money where we need it
- playing three-dimensional chess
- hedging our bets
